

Discovering Chinese Pentecostalism: Challenges, Theories and Methods

Dr. Allan Heaton Anderson
Professor of Global Pentecostal Studies
University of Birmingham

Allan H. Anderson considers rapidly-growing forms of Pentecostal-like Christianity in China. He will discuss its historical and social background, its categorisation, the particular challenges for western researchers, and the place of Chinese Pentecostalism in the global Pentecostal movement.

July 23, 2013, 6pm to 8pm

Karl Jaspers Centre, Room 212
Voßstr. 2, Building 4400
Heidelberg

Organised by Junior Research Group B21 „Transcultural Dynamics of Global Pentecostalism“